How Street Eats Works

Street Eats* isn't just a menu; it's an experience.

It's a dedicated destination within the school service, offering an exciting line-up of street food brands that rotate daily. Our nine concepts run on a three-week cycle for plenty of variety, with favourites like Dough Street and Stack & Bun appearing more often.

Sample Marketing

A big part of the Street Eats brand is bringing it to life on site through impactful marketing. We've created eye-catching posters and carried out our own photoshoot featuring the food served on site. With posters and other point-of-sale materials, the marketing will change daily to match the concept running that day.
